THE RAYMOND LION

Last Monday was a special day for the Lions of the Raymond Club. We missed a meeting the week of the "Big Freeze" in March so the President decided to double up and have the ladies in for a special evening. To make it very special Phil Baker was asked to bring a complete program from the Lethbridge Club.

Lucille served one of her lovely dinners to sixty-five Lions, Lionesses and guests. The evening was lively, entertaining and informative.

Peter Kirkpatrick was Phil's first surprise. After three beautiful songs Peter got the whole crowd singing instead of eating. He had to hurry away to another appointment so asked to be excused. Norm Thomas then sang a couple of his radio hits for us.

The highlight of the evening was Miss Aina Kiesner. This lady has personality plus and is good to look at too. She told her personal story as a D.P. which was typical of thousands of people in Europe. She told of her experiences simply, enthusiastically and in surprisingly good English for a girl only a short time with us.

She was a young girl in Latvia before the Second War and she told of how the Russians came in to protect their interests in Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia. Then the Russians accused the Government of breaking their agreement and took over the country under military rule. They proceeded to eliminate over 40,000 officials, policemen, school teachers and clergymen in Miss Kiesner's own country.

Then the Germans came and Russia took all the able-bodied men into the army. The Germans took control and moved all the healthy, vigorous youth to work in the munitions factories in Germany. She, and thousands more, worked long hours for poor pay and little, if any, poorer food. The British bombed them daily. She was in the American zone after the war and had a chance to come to Canada.

Miss Kiesner thinks she is much more fortunate than most and she thanks Fate, her God and Canada for giving her what she now has. She is a toll clerk in the Telephone Exchange in Lethbridge.

This girl is a fine speaker and has a message every Canadian should hear. I think she will be lecturing to the High School students in the Opera House next week — if you can make it we suggest that you be there.

After Miss Kiesner's story Norm Thomas sang three clever impersonation numbers — you should hear his Al Jolson. At nine o'clock another guest, Charlie Parry, took over the show. He had been invited to teach some dumb Lions how to square dance. He did very well, too. Emma, Tommy, and Leif Erickson played for the dance. Charlie had us all played out in four or five dances. We are going to need a lot of practice before we could start at nine o'clock and go till two. Oh well, it is fun practicing — maybe we will make it in a few years.

The party broke up about eleven-thirty with most of the gang expressing their pleasure for the swell time and hoping to do it again before too long.

Picture Butte Lions Club invited our club to their Charter Night Anniversary on Wednesday of this week.

The Playground Committee is anxious to get Project No. 1 functioning as soon as possible. Most of the equipment is on the grounds in front of the Swimming Pool. Another afternoon should clean up the deal and give the children a place to play in peace.

Mrs. Viola Kenny and Mrs. Wanda Perry of Lethbridge and Mrs. Myrtle Patterson of Vancouver were afternoon visitors on Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Czar Fairbanks.

What a Fashion-show

Last Friday evening in the Stake Recreational Hall, the First, Fourth and Welling Elders and their partners met for a very enjoyable Basket Social.

The evening started off with an entertaining program of piano solos and duets, tap dancing, readings and vocal quartets and duets, followed by some active and hilarious games. A Fashion Show with everything from boxes to fur pieces being modelled, was next on the agenda, followed by a Treasure Hunt.

A few Square dances whipped up ones appetite and soon the prettily decorated baskets were being opened and the contents enjoyed. A few more dances topped off the evening to perfection.

The members of the Honored Guest Committee held a meeting and social Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gough. Routine business was carried on for the first hour and then the time was spent playing Rook. High score went to Mrs. Thirza Cooper and consolation to Mrs. Edith Hall. At the close of the evening a nice lunch was served by the ladies of the group.

Ben Kindt Rink Wins Mixed Bonspiel

The 1950-51 Curling season ended this week with the completion of the Mixed Bonspiel at the local rink. After 16 days of smoothly run competitions Ben Kindt and Co. won the Championship by defeating the Heber Allen rink on the last end. In the Second Event Ray Attwood and E. Buan skipped the winning rinks and Loron Larson and Rol Stone with their helpers topped the Third Event.

Karl Wilde with brothers Wallace and Herbie and Mel Dewep made up the Bonspiel Committee and they wish to thank Renon Pack and his assistants for their fine work in handling the draws for this spiel.

The Curling Club with Heber Allen as President have enjoyed a successful year at the rink and are looking forward to the time when the rocks will become the main topic of conversation.

Just Penning Thanks

(Margaret Huszar)

Monday was a sad day indeed. That would be the impression of people unfamiliar with the unexplored region between the ears of teenagers. School began again after the wonderful ten-day parole. All prisoners were quite consoled into accepting their fate and their cold cells.

But the unexpected began to happen. The first unusual occurrence was the noisy insistency of the alarm clock, or perhaps, Mother. Then the students found that it was an admirable day for sluff but that was last fall; so, heartbroken at having to waste such a beautiful day, the student (pardon the loose usage of the word) finally set off for school.

When he arrived, he probably saw the rare sight of flurried Grade 12ers (those cool, debonaire people — except when . . .). Their desks had been placed in newer, roomier, lighter and airier locations. Outside. Their books had found huge amounts of space, at last, on Nature's table, the ground. After having spent a day's energy in one period, gathering up scattered books and cussing, the seniors settled down.

Some bright character without more than two pins in his head, had instigated revolt. Apparently he thought he was a practical joker, only he wasn't funny. We have rights in a democracy, but they are not to be abused. We also have laws to punish the abuser. Some guy thinks today that he's a big shot because he got into the school and messed things up. Listen, bub, whoever you are, you're the closest anybody can get to an idiot.

Anybody find my English yet?

Dukes Down Comets

From March 29 to March 31 the RHS Comets played host to the New Westminster Duke of Connaught's H.S. School "A" team. The teams met in the Opera House for a three game series to decide the Alberta - B.C. H.S. School "A" Boys Basketball championship.

In the first game the Comets struggled with the Dukes in a hotly contested battle but in the pinches the Dukes put forth more effort and came out on the long end of a 51 to 46 score. Ernie Nyhaug was the big gun for the Dukes potting 16 points with hook shots, long shots and anything you could ask for.

On Friday night the Comets put their backs to the wall and fought to a hard-earned victory. With 15 seconds to go and the score tied at 45 Gary Salmon dribbled in under the basket and with a squirm that would make a contortionist green with envy he shot the ball into the bucket to hand the 47 to 45 victory to the Comets.

In the third and final game played Saturday afternoon the Comets jumped into a fast 14 point lead and it took the Dukes until half-time to tie the score. After the breather they never looked back. The Comets had blown the fuse in the Friday night victory and didn't have the needed drive to win the third game. The Duke of Connaught High School A Team became the Alberta B.C. Champions for the second year by virtue of a 56 to 44 victory over the Raymond Comets.

Damage Only Slight

The wall of the fire siren brought people to the street last Friday afternoon when the Brigade answered the call to extinguish a fire that threatened to destroy a barn belonging to Ellys Piegras. Damage to the value of about twenty-five dollars was the result of carelessness on the part of children.

The damage to a barn or house is not in itself, nearly as tragic as the loss of life or the maiming of a human body. This is the likely prospect if men, women and children do not exercise more care when the fire siren blows. Last week this was a very near reality when a boy on a bicycle crossed in front of the Town truck as it was on its way to the fire. The firemen driving the water wagon and cars on their way to a fire have not time to dawdle along, and so all traffic, both vehicular and pedestrian, should yield the right-of-way. A big part in the saving of any building on fire is done during the very first minutes of the blaze, and that is why the men drive as they do. Mothers and Fathers would do well to advise their children in the rules of safety and then abide by them themselves.

Shirley Ockey of Cardston was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Athol Cooper and Marie over the Easter holidays.

Mrs. June Allred and Mr. and Mrs. John Schaalje were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Allred on Good Friday. It was also Mrs. Allred's birthday.

Your Government

By Andy Snaddon

The rules which govern parliamentary debate are many and complicated and the Alberta legislature has followed no particular set of rules up to now. However, that will be changed this year as a special committee will review parliamentary procedure and try to build up a general plan to cover Alberta's needs.

The committee was agreed to after a rather sharp debate in the house over the question of whether the Hon. Peter Dawson, speaker of the house, should attend the caucus of the Social Credit Party.

Mr. Dawson, as speaker, is the man who decides what is in order and what is not, and his ruling is final. The party caucus is when the government members meet in private (twice a week) to discuss legislative and party strategy. Mr. Dawson, of course, is a privately elected member representing the constituency of Little Bow and as a private member he attends caucus.

Now the Liberals objected to this and suggested that it be ruled that the speaker should not attend a party caucus. They argued that the federal speaker in Ottawa did not attend the Liberal caucus and that no Alberta speaker had attended caucus until the Social Credit government was elected in 1935.

Liberal Leader, J. Harpur Prowse, said it was not a question of challenging Mr. Dawson's actions as speaker. It was a matter of principle and it would be most unfortunate if the impression was given that the speaker tended to favor his own party, which impression might be gained from the speaker's attendance at caucus. To Mr. Prowse it was the same as if a hockey referee spent the rest periods in one team's dressing room. He might not be biased but the other team could hardly be blamed for wondering.

Premier Manning and the Social Credit members considered the Liberal motion "nonsense" or "eye-wash". The argument was put forth that Mr. Dawson had to represent his constituency and as he could not speak in the house he could only do so by attendance at caucus. H. B. MacDonald, independent member, said he felt that no ruling should be made to bind the speaker because the non-attendance at caucus by other speakers was voluntary.

The CCF endorsed the Liberal motion as far as attendance at caucus was concerned but felt that Alberta had no proper rules of procedure. They contended it should have, so the matter of argument could be referred to some specific authority rather than the speaker's interpretation. The government agreed to this and while the Liberal argument was rejected, the CCF proposal was passed. The com-

Legion Ladies Make Donation to Red Cross

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion was held in the Memorial Hall on March 26th with Pres. Mary Thompson conducting the meeting.

Roll Call was answered with members donating a dish towel to the Hall. The minutes were then read and approved and the financial report was given and the yearly sum of ten dollars was given to the Red Cross.

It was decided to have a Spring Tea sometime in May and monthly Whist Parties with the proceeds going to help pay for redecorating the Hall.

It was moved by Fern Thompson and seconded by Flo McKean that Mary Thompson be a delegate to the Provincial Convention to be held in Lethbridge June 17 to 21. Also that the berets be purchased before the Zone Rally in Taber.

Due to the stormy weather in March there were no sewing clubs held but it was decided that tickets for the quilt be made and distributed, this being under the direction of Vall Attwood.

It was moved by Fern Thompson and seconded by Elsie Evans that a door-prize, value limited to one dollar, be donated by a member and raffled each month. Jenny Allen offered to bring the prize for our next meeting.

As there were no members with birthdays in February the surplus January birthdays supplied the lunch and the entertainment.

Alice Court sang a lovely Irish song and there were piano ramblings and community singing with Louie Winters at the piano.

Following three tables of Court Whist with honors going to Vall Attwood and complimentary to Edith Smith a delicious lunch was served by Carol Shaw, Ruby Holland and Alice Court.

Brownie Witbeck Wins Treasure Chest

Saturday evening saw all the chairs and most of the bleacher seats in the Opera House occupied by lovers of the finer things of life, for those people had paid good hard money to attend a concert. The concert was sponsored by the Temple Hill Cemetery Board to raise money for their worthwhile work.

Sickness and other causes kept some of the originally slated performers from appearing, but those who filled in did a wonderful job of it. Dick Kinsey, who did a pinch hitting job for George Brown, did right good for a boy. Mr. Brown's only advantage over our Dick is that he can sing.

Fine talent from several places in Sunny Southern was displayed before a very appreciative audience, and to name all the performers and their contribution to the very successful concert would be impossible—for various reasons.

One item on the program was the performance of the High School Band Grant Erickson has done a mighty fine job with these youthful musicians and we sincerely hope that the work can be carried on. A Band would be a wonderful thing for a town like Raymond.

Possibly the biggest single item on the program was the drawing for the "Treasure Chest"—a cedar chest filled with two hundred dollars worth of merchandise. The lucky ticket was drawn from the churn by Babe Harris of Lethbridge and the winner was Brownie Witbeck. With a little help from his wife, the Babe and Dick,

A Pretty Wedding at The Buddhist Temple

Saturday afternoon, March 24th, marriage vows were exchanged in the Buddhist Church between Tsuruye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Mori, and Shiro, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Masuda. Reverend Ikuta officiated.

The radiant bride was gowned in traditional white satin styled with a high lace yoke, long lily point sleeve, and a short train. The lovely floor length veil was held in place by a beaded coronet. Her bouquet was of red roses and white carnations.

The bride's only attendant was her sister Emiko, wearing a pink floor length gown, and carrying a bouquet of daffodils and tulips. The groom's brother Min, was best man.

A Reception followed in the Lotus Inn Banquet Hall in Lethbridge with many relatives and friends calling to extend best wishes to the happy couple. Mr. Hiramatsu and Mr. Hozaki were in charge of the gifts and Mr. K. Takaguchi and Mr. Okabe were M.C.'s for the enjoyable extemporaneous program. After the cutting of the beautiful wedding cake, the bride and groom left on their honeymoon. Mrs. Masuda chose a matching grey gabardine suit and top coat, to which was pinned a corsage of red roses and carnations, and a grey hat and black accessories.

A Crook Leaves Town

Several of the men working at the Kircaldy Ranch were the victims of a bold and brazen theft on Thursday. It is supposed that a former employee at the Ranch took off with about fifty dollars cash and some clothes. After working for a couple of weeks the man decided to leave and didn't want to go empty handed so he "borrowed" a kit-bag from Ken Knight, filled it with clothes, picked up what cash he could and started on his way. Several unsuspecting neighbors gave the crook a lift when he told them he was on his way to visit a sick sister. The men from the Ranch gave chase but were unable to catch the man before he got to the hard-surface where he got a ride to where, no-one knows.

Capitol Theatre News

Next week holds great entertainment at the Capitol when we are presenting four excellent features at a saving for you. Read our advertisement in this issue and note that the following features are for next week: "Molly", "East Side West Side", "Red Shoes" and "Thieves Highway" and all four shows can be seen for the low cost of one dollar. Take advantage of this and have a week of swell enjoyment.

The feature that has played to exceptional business everywhere it has been shown is "Red Shoes". Only last year this was shown in Salt Lake City with the admission price being one dollar and sixty-five cents. It now comes to the Capitol at regular prices and if you take advantage of the special week-price you can see this feature for much less.

It won't be long before Spencer Tracy will be shown in his greatest picture "Father of the Bride". Watch this column for further information.

If you haven't renewed your subscription — do it now!

Brownie inspected the contents and voiced his appreciation, as did his wife.

The Cemetery Board wish to express their appreciation to all those who took part on the program, sold tickets and to the merchants who donated to the Chest.

On behalf of the public we wish to express gratitude to the Board for staging such a fine show for our enjoyment.

FLAX FORUM

(Reading time—44 seconds)

FLAX PROVED NOT HARD ON FARM LAND

A recent three year analysis of the nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, magnesium, calcium and sulphur content in seed and straw of wheat, oats, barley and flax showed flax removed fewer nutrients from the soil than many other crops.

FLAX GROWS WELL

With proper weed control methods flax can compete successfully with weeds. Flax, too, is no more subject to disease than any other cereal crop and modern machinery can harvest flax just as easily as any other crop.

FLAX IS VALUABLE

Flax has had a cash value per acre, on a ten year average, very close to wheat and far higher than oats or barley.

Canada should sow 1,000,000 acres of flax. Grow some flax every year. For the free, informative booklet "There's a Future in Flax" write:

mittee will study the whole matter this year and report back next session. So Alberta will have its own rules of parliamentary procedure.

Alberta will soon allow export of natural gas to Montana, for defence purposes and on a limited basis for the next five years. This is the first export to be allowed from Alberta, even though it is only a minor step so far.

Now there has been one thing lacking in the government statements on natural gas export policy. It may be that the matter has been considered, but so far it has not been revealed whether the government has any overall plans for the extension of natural gas services to rural communities which would want it but have not got it.

Municipal leaders should be interested in knowing whether co-operatives can be formed, as with rural electrification, to provide facilities or perhaps if such plans could be set up under the municipal self-liquidating loan project. It seems reasonable that one of the first considerations in natural gas policy should be distribution of gas to Alberta consumers, where it is economically feasible.
